BRODHEAD.

The ladies of Preachersville will give a play at the Citizens Bank hall here next Thursday night, June 4th, entitled, "Ladies Masonic Lodge". We are reliably informed that this is a very funny play, and one that every one will enjoy. They have a real goat to assist them in conferring the degrees, which two candidates receive, and we know the work will be done in a creditable manner.
The ladies come in possession of these secrets from Masons, who by chance happened to talk too much in their sleep. The officers are as follows: Angel Cake, Master; Sister Gossip, Senior Warden; Sister Busybody, Junior Warden; Sister Backbite, Junior Deacon; Sister Royal Pincushion,

Senior Deacon; Sister Blueblood, Member; Thankful Sister Royal Peekaboo, Secretary; Sambo, Newsboy; Mrs Padlock and Mrs Epeac, candidates, who take 1st, 2nd and 3rd degrees of Blue Lodge No. 1, F & A. M. The proceeds go for a worthy cause, and we want to give the visitors a good house, as no doubt their play deserves. Everybody cordially invited to attend, especially the ladies of Mt. Vernon and Crab Orchard who are interested to learn about their husbands masonry.
Admission 15c and 25c; reserved seats 35c. Tickets at John Robins' (Drug Store).—R. L. Collier was in town Tuesday and Wednesday.—R. H. Hamm will soon have his property on College Street completed. This is the property Mr. Hamm recently purchased from Granville Owens, and he is making many improvements. Owen Case and family will occupy the property where Mr. Hamm now lives.—W. H.

Smith were the guests of Mr. and Gutman, of Crab Orchard, was in town last week, and while here left a bid for grading the track for the new fair grounds, which he claims he can do nicely with his tractor on engine and road gader. The contract has not yet been let as there are several parties looking after the job.—J. B.
Frith, who has been railroading for the past two months, returned home the latter part of last week.
—Hon. A. O. Stanley addressed the voters here last Saturday, a fairly good crowd being in attendance.—The democrats in these parts seem to be a little partial to Gov. Beckham, though we find some that are for Stanley and McCreary.—Mrs. L. M. Brown was in Danville last week.—Dr.
George M. Frith, of Tellico Plains, Tenn., was with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Frith, from Friday until Sunday.—Miss Clyde Watson and Mildred Robins spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Durham this week.
—We regret to learn that Mrs.
Josh Dunn died at her home in Danville last Thursday. She used to live here, and her many friends will be greatly shocked because of her death. We understand that she underwent an operation, from which she never recovered. Those attending the funeral from here were, Mrs. J. G. Frith, Mrs. L.
M. Brown, Dr. George Frith and others.—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Roberts were the guests of his mother, Mrs. Sallie Roberts, at Gum Sulphur, Sunday.—Services were held at the Christian church, Saturday and Sunday by the Pastor, Rev. Boyd Baker.

Born to the wife of Owen Cass a 9 pound boy last Sunday evening. Owen is the proudest man on business.—Mr. and Mrs. C. H.

Smith were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hiatt, Sunday.—P. E.
Shivel and daughter, Miss Bessie were in Mt. Vernon Monday having dental work done.—We want to correct a serious mistake that we made in our last week's letter in which we stated that Chint Lear of the Hiatt section, had lost his fine stallion. The horse, which is one of the very best in the County, is alive, and how the rumor got started we have no idea, but we hope that the false statement we made will in no way tend to injure Mr. L. Lear, and we take pleasure in making the correction.—Squire George Robinson of near Livingston was in town last Monday, and made application for a place in our school for his daughter, and we understand that she is well qualified to fill the place.—H. H. Harlan, Special Agent for the L. & N. R. Co., was here Wednesday and Thursday looking after company's interests.—Uncle John Sigman is able to walk about his room again, much to the surprise of those who knew his serious condition of a few weeks ago. We hope to see him himself again.—We appreciate the advice given us by the Livingston reporter, and will hereafter strictly adhere to it.—Don't forget the Ice cream and Pie sup-with relatives in the Ottawa section.—The stockholders of The Brodhead Fair Association will meet next Tuesday night at hall over Citizens Bank. We want every one to be there. Business of importance to look after.— Walter Robins returned home from Tellico Plains, Tenn. Monday, where he has been employed by The Tellico River Lumber Co.

He was recently promoted to Assistant Foreman of the Logging Department, and will return in a few days.—Teed Payne has moved his family to the property recently purchased by Wade H.
Graves to be used for the Telephone Exchange. Mr. Graves is here this week overhauling the lines, and will move the exchange in a few days, and says he will make her sing before he quits.
We believe he will do all he says but if he will make her talk the subscribers will be in a better humor than in the past.

The Worth of the Farm Agent.

Fiscal Courts are not especially noted for the good judgment with which they appropriate county funds. Information to the effect that the Fiscal Court of Whitley county has made an appropriation for the employment of a county farm agent is to be welcomed as an evidence that now and then these bodies may be relied upon to do the proper thing.

The last Legislature passed an enabling act which makes it possible for Fiscal Courts to make these appropriations. Whitley is the first of the mountain counties to take this step and the magistrates who voted for the appropriation have demonstrated their wisdom and progressiveness. Most of the counties in Eastern Kentucky are increasing in population. Some of them in the course of their industrial development are neglecting their agricultural interests. This should not be the case. Some of them already are near the end of their timber resources. They have great mineral wealth, but the coal when once mined cannot be replaced. Their one abiding resource is the soil.

The mountain counties of Kentucky are not now producing enough foodstuff to supply the needs of their population. They are paying out millions of dollars annually for products that might be grown at home. This is a condition that can be rectified by improving the farms, by conserving the soil, by reclaiming the worn-out lands, by adopting better methods of farming and by increasing the production of livestock.

It is just here that the services of the farm agent are valuable. The average farmer has never seen an agricultural college, and he pays scant attention to the vast amount of printed advice that is served up to him in various ways. But there are plenty of farmers everywhere who are glad to avail themselves of the services and the advice of the county agent. He lives and moves among them and his practical assistance is of more effect than tons of literature. No county makes a bad investment by employing a capable farm agent. It has been estimated that every thousand dollars spent for farm agents will give at least $10,000 in better farm returns.—Courier Journal.

FINANCIAL DESTRUCTION

The merchants of this town deserve the patronage of the people of this community. They are a part, and a very important part, of the community. They pay a very considerable portion of the taxes of the town and of the county. They contribute to the support of the churches and other social institutions, and make possible many things the community would not have if they were not here.

The mail order houses of the cities are spending thousands of dollars for the purpose of putting the country merchants of this town, and other towns, out of business, and every man who spends a dollar with them assists in the accomplishment of their selfish aims.

The ultimate end of the mail order method will be the centralizing of all the business of the country in the large cities and the financial destruction of the smaller cities and towns.

Are you willing to be a party to the financial destruction of your home town?—Three States.

Summer Training School For Sunday School Workers.

Preparations are being made for a Training School for Sunday School workers to be held in Lexington, Ky., June 11-19, 1914 under the auspices of the Kentucky Christian Bible School Association to which the Disciples of Christ throughout the State are looking forward as one of their most important religious events of the year. Courses will be offered in Bible Study, Religious Pedagogy, Bible Study, Sunday School Administration, Missions and Social Service by a strong faculty composed of four college professors and as many Sunday School specialists. A feature of the program will be three simultaneous departmental sections, under competent supervision giving training in the special work of the Elementary, Secondary and Adult Divisions. The morning of each day will be devoted to class work, the afternoon to study, conference and recreation, and the evening to special lectures and the departmental sections.

The faculty as announced by the Dean, Walter E. Frazee of Louisville, who as State Superintendent of the Kentucky Christian Bible School Association is arranging all the details of the school is as follows:

F. E. Lumley—Professor of Social Service and American Missions in The College of Missions, Indianapolis, Ind. Instructor in Missions and Social Service.

E. E. Snoddy—Professor of Philosophy in Hiram College, but called to The College of the Bible Lexington, Special Lecturer.

W. C. Bower—Professor of Religious Education in the Bible College, Lexington, Ky. Instructor in Religious Pedagogy.

Miss Hazel A. Lewis—Elementary Superintendent of the Bible-school Department of the American Christian Missionary Society. Instructor in Elementary Division and Missionary Methods.

Miss Cynthia Pearl Maus—Associate Editor Bible school supplies, Christian Board Publication, Instructor in Secondary Division.

W. J. Clarke—Adult Superintendent of the Bible-school Department of the American Christian Missionary Society. Instructor in Adult Division and Administration.

All sessions of the school will be held in the chapel and class rooms of the College of the Bible while the students will be entertained in the dormitories of Hamilton College.

This is the Third Annual School of this character held by the Association. Over two hundred and fifty students were enrolled last year representing one hundred and nineteen churches. A class of 106 took the complete course and received International certificates, which has the record of being the largest class graduated among the Disciples of Christ. Preparations are being made for over three hundred this year.

Extract from Simplified Spelling Bulletin, (No. 1 Madison Ave. New York):

Prof. Felter's theme was "Thoughts Suggested by the Brooklyn Eagle's Spelling Bee." He expressed the opinion that such spelling bees, preceded, as in this case, by a large amount of preparation in the separate schools, or a great waste of time and energy, not only taking the time actually employed in the contest, but also demoralizing the whole school, and distracting the attention of the pupils from the important subjects of study. The waste is still greater in view of the fact that all this effort is merely to force pupils to learn a great number of irregular and anomalous spellings that ought not to be used, and ought not to be taught at all.

We need not throw down all regulations. What we need to do is to adopt some regulation—a reasonable and convenient system which all can soon learn, and apply without hesitation or uncertainty. There are, in short, too many regulations, with too little regulation.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

Owing to a defect in a part of the newspaper press this issue of the Signal has been a little late.

Senator W. O. Bradley died last Saturday at his apartments in Washington, D. C., of uremic poisoning.

The residence of J. W. Angin with all its contents was destroyed Wednesday by fire. Loss was partly covered by insurance.

George Farmer, who was employed by the W. J. Sparks Co. here for several months, was killed yesterday by falling slate in a mine at LaFollette, Tenn. The remains will be brought here tonight for burial.

It is still hoped it was not a local citizen who committed the crime of murder on a man not of our kind of people, for nowhere in this sweet land of ours are there a people of more tenderness of heart and kindly spoken than in this dear old Rockcastle. There may be, there may have crept into our midst individuals with mental criminal tendencies, but the percentage is small, and inconceivable powers of reasoning surely must have been resorted to, if the deed were committed by one living amongst us but surely not as one of us.

Jim Doan, suspected of the murder of the unknown man found on town hill last week, was arrested and lodged in jail Monday. Doan had been suspected for several days but not until Monday when signs of blood were found between Doan's house and where the man was found, and also a bloody suit of overalls found in Doan's house, was the evidence sufficient to warrant an arrest.

The officers working on the case say that the evidence all together is reasonably strong against Doan and feel sure that there are other who know more than they have told. The general opinion is that who ever committed the crime did so to cover up a case of robbery.

Last Friday began the closing exercises of the Langdon Memorial school. In the afternoon was the exhibit of the Domestic science department in the evening the operetta; Sunday evening Baccalaureate sermon by Dr. Criswell, Monday evening the pupils of Miss Grissom and Tuesday evening the closing program, consisting of a two act play and a paper read by Miss Ruth Landrum who completed the Eighth Grade this term. To those who know of the splendid work of the Langdon Memorial, no words of commendation is necessary upon our part. The work of this school is unexcelled by any institution of its class in the state, and these are words of praise heard from the lips of many who have visited the Langdon Memorial during the past. To know and fully appreciate the work being done by this institution of which Miss Rose McCord is head, one must see and know for themselves.

A meeting of all the stockhold-6th, at 2 p. m. at the Fair Grounds.

Every stockholder is requested to be at this meeting.

W. H. FISH, Sec.

Don't forget the Stockholder's Meeting of the Mt. Vernon Fair Association at Fair Grounds, Saturday, June 6th, at 2 p. m. Great interest is expected at this meeting, in that at this time the comfort of the people who will visit the Fair, August 5-6-7, will be especially considered. Other important business to be transacted.

Owing to the fact that the electric lights will not be ready to turn on until Saturday night, the play to be given by the Graded School pupils entitled "Evangeline" has been postponed until Saturday night. This is a good play, the actors well suited to their characters, and know their parts well.

STRAWBERRIES. Only two parties in Mt. Vernon raised strawberries this season for sale.
They sold probably 200 gallons at 50 cents per gallon and had calls for at least 700 gallons. We have made mention in these columns, a number of times that if some of our people would cultivate more strawberries they would have no trouble in finding sale for them right at home. Try it.

Livingston's big pastime now is turtle racing. The sport of races between the reptiles becoming somewhat tame a race between a big reptile and a man for a dash of 200 yards was pulled off there a few days since. The amphibian gave the sightseers quite a surprise by running over the man knocking him down and crippling one of his arms. Turtle was declared winner. The man begged so hard to keep his name out of the paper that we refrain from publishing it. He has claimed damages from accident insurance company and will recover it. It is unnecessary to say Will Owens wasn't the man that the "turtle ran over."

WOMEN AND GOOD ROADS

Miss Rose McCord, of Mt. Vernon, chairman of Good Roads in the Kentucky Federation, declares that her zeal was born of firsthand knowledge of the great need of better roads, and a firm conviction that nothing would more quickly bring about the conditions social economics and educational for which the Federation stands than a State-wide system of good roads.

Government bulletins on this subject placed in the schools—especially in the mountain sections—to be carried into the homes of the people and letters to clubs and legislators have been especial features of Miss McCord's work.

The national good roads movement which resulted in the form-tion of the Lincoln Highway Association has from the start been shared in by club women. The great Tree Planting Committee for this road that is to reach from ocean to ocean is headed by an Illinois woman and made up of the chairmen of conservation of all State Federations. It will meet during the Chicago biennial.

Already Governors and Mayors of towns have promised co-operation. In New Jersey it is proposed to border the highway with fruit trees. In Pennsylvania has been started a movement for forestry preservation along the Lincoln road. Masses of American laurel, hardy vines and perennials will be used largely throughout the original thirteen States, especially at the entrances to cities and in historic centers. In Illinois and the prairie States, the prairie rose will be used. In Nebraska shade trees will be planted 200 feet apart and on both sides making spaces of a hundred feet for shrubs. And so on throughout the length of a road calculated to stimulate travel, love of country and road building.

In addition to the main highway the tree planting will be undertaken along connecting roads. One of these starting from Chattanooga, will pass Lincoln's birth place at Hodgenville and dividing, one branch will pass Mc-Kinley's home, while the other goes northward to join the Lincoln highway in Indiana. The Lincoln elms at Springfield are to be huddled and the old rosebushes the white fringes and mock orange from his home there also will be similarly treated. In this way cuttings will be obtained for planting in suitable places where gardeners are available for their care.

BOONE RELICS

On the farm of Miss Ella Jackson, on the old Boone Trail near Fariston, there was a thicket called "The Lost Camp," where in the year 1780 the Indians surprised a party of white settlers and killed twenty, taking the remainder prisoners.

Last week while plowing this lot Messrs. Alex and Nath Byble uncovered two huge metal plates in a most perfect state of preservation, though they have not yet determined what metal they are made of. On one of the plates is written in script the name of "Sarah McNutt," on the other side of the same plate is stamped the name "David King." Under one of the plates was found charcoal from the camp fire.
It is known that a man named McNutt was the leader of the ill-fated party.—London Sentinel.

HOW TO TREAT YOUR TOWN

Praise it.
Improve it.
Talk about it.
Trade at home.
Be public spirited.
Take a home pride in it.
Tell of its business men.
Remember it is your home.
Tell of its natural advantages.
Trade and induce others to trade here.
When strangers come to town use them well.
Don't call your best citizens frauds and imposters.
Support your local institutions that benefit your town.
Look ahead of self when all the town is to be considered.
Help the public officers do the most good for the most people.

GOOD WORK

This week will practically close the May term of the Pulaski Circuit court. It is a four weeks term, but the docket is in such splendid condition that the Judge is able to dispose of the entire business in three weeks. This shows the value and importance of having a Judge on the bench who knows how to try the business and who has the push about him necessary to expedite the business of the court, which is so essential in the clearing and keeping the dockets cleared and free from congestion. The people of the 28th Judicial district are to be congratulated upon having such a judge. They recognize ability and real worth in a public servant, and that is the reason why they propose to continue the services of Judge Bethurum for another term. They know that he has made good in that capacity and being a gentleman of the highest type of morals and a model man in every way, and having always stood for lofty ideals in life, and the advancement of every laudible undertaking, and knowing that he is this type of man, and that he can be depended upon to exemplify these splendid traits of character in his daily walks, and as the judge of the court, they feel that they cannot afford to make a change and hazard the interest of the district in unknown and untried hands.

Judge Bethurum proposes to conduct his campaign for re-election upon a high plain, befitting the dignity and honor of this high office, and will not resort to low and dirty tactics in order to further his interest, nor will he undertake to ride into office upon the prestige or popularity of some other man, but is willing to risk his interest in the hands of the good people upon his own merits as a lawyer, and upon his splendid record as a judge.

From reliable reports from all the counties of the district, the Herald is justified in saying that there will be a landslide for the present judge in every county in the district.—Somerset Herald.

Billy Sunday's Sermon on David.

"All of the sons of Jesse except David went off to war; they left David at home because he was only a kid. After awhile David's ma-got worried. She wondered what had become of his brothers, because they hadn't telephoned to her or sent word. So she said to David, 'Dave, you go down there and see whether they are all right.'"

So David hikes off to where the war is, and the first morning he was there out comes this big Goliath, a big, strapping fellow about 11 feet tall, who commenced to shoot off his mouth as to what he was going to do.

"Who's that big stiff putting up that game talk?" asked David of his brothers.

"Oh, he's the whole works; he's the head cheese of the Philistines. He does that little stunt every day."

"Say, said David, 'you guys make me sick. Why don't some of you go out and soak that guy?
You let him get away with that stuff.' He decided to go out and tell Goliath where to head in.
'So, Saul said: 'You'd better take my armor and sword.' David put them on, but he left like a fellow with a hand-me-down suit about four times too big for him, so he took them off and went down for the count. David drew his sword and chopped off his block, and the rest of the gang beat it."

"Mr. Fredricks" said the examining lawyer, 'you know old Cull the witness, in this case, do you not?"

"Oh, yes," answered George, knew him nigh onter forty years now.

"What is his reputation for va-racity?" asked the lawyer. "Is he regarded as a man who never tells the truth?"

"Waal, I can't say that he don't never tell the truth," answered George "but I do know that if he wanted his hogs ter come ter dinner, he'd have ter git somebody else ter call 'em."

in a recent issue of the Signal he saw and pillaged overhauled, appropriated and made use of Webster's, Johnson's, the new century and other dictionaries, Encyclopedia Britannica, and most of the reference books to be found in various libraries, to bring out an awful strong, heavy manifesto telling what he would do for us (M.
& F.) if there was not a let up on these write-ups about him and Big Ben. Atlas would be staggered if he should attempt to get under such a load. Old At. was a boss in the liftin' line, having on numerous occasions been accused with totin' the earth around on his shoulders. Now, you may suspicion the reason why nothing is going to be given away in future about the actions of this friend Owens and Big Ben, by M. or F., so long as the "big threat" hangs over their heads. They know when they are well off and don't want to be skinned alive and have salt rubbed on the raw places.
Brer rabbit (F) he lay low and say nothin' (for awhile), Brer Fox (M) he huntin' place to crawl out at an' say, "jee, wait" till de clouds roll by and you'll see the sunshine agin'.

HOPEWELL

Rev. Chas. Carmichael attended the decoration at Line Creek on the 17th and reports a nice time.
Geo. Nicely of Utter, spent Sunday and Monday with his father, Mr. Wm. Nicely. — Miss Bertha and Mary Carmichael have just recovered from a very severe case of measles. — Cecil and Earnest Barnes spent Sunday with their grandmother, Mrs. Lucina Barnes. — Rev. Carmichael filled his regular appointment at Flat Lick Saturday and Sunday. — Well it seems that after so long a time that we are having some farming weather, but still the drought seems to be inflicting gardens to some extent, but still we feel sure that if we all do our part that we will all get along alright, for we have never had any famine in this part.
— Miss Isabelle Ping will commence her third term of school at this place in a few weeks, there is to be eight months school this year. It seems that there is no excuse whatever in these days for children not having a good education, for just think of our fathers and mothers only having three months school to attend, now to think what a change our little ones have to day, and fathers and mothers we should all take great interest in educating our children for that is one thing that no one can take from them.

Oklahoma Oil Opportunity

Oil is the greatest money maker and Oklahoma is the greatest field in the United States in the value of her oil productions, totaling over $1,000,000 income weekly.
Green Pool and other Oklahoma fields made millionaires rapidly when oil was selling at thirty five cents per barrel. Now the price is more than double. Fortunes are accumulated almost between the rising and setting of the sun in the great Mid-Continent field of Oklahoma.

When one considers the State produces more than $1,000,000 a week, that wells can be drilled in from six to twenty days and often these wells pay for themselves within a week after drilling, that the owner of a single forty or eighty acres of land frequently has an income of $300.00 a day and that stock bought in a Company at $1.00 or $10.00 a share is many times worth $10.00 to $300.00 a share within a year one's brain reels at the thought.
And yet this is the history of many individuals in the state of Oklahoma that reads like some fairy tale. The gold fields of California in their palmiest days are left far in the rear; the great gold awakening in Alaska is forgotten; the diamond fields of Kimberley in South Africa pale into insignif-ificance. Nothing in the history of civilized mankind has aided man in accumulating fortunes so rapidly as the oil and gas interest of the great Mid-Continent field in the State of Oklahoma.

Here even children of the white Indian and negro races who have had a small piece of land left to them thru the inheritance have frequently an income of $100.00 to $300.00 per day from royalties while the Oil Company that is developing their land is frequently making 100 per cent a month.
Language fails to express the reality and even eye witnesses can hardly believe the marvelous fact of production of oil.

A number of strong Companies have been organized and are operating. Among these is the Great Western Petroleum Company of Tulsa, Oklahoma, incorporated under the laws of Oklahoma for $1,000,000 with a strong directorate of business men, three of whom are experienced and practical oil men, which is now offering 100-000 shares of the stock at the par value of $1.00, stock to be sold in blocks of five shares and upward.

Those who desire to know some thing more of the great oil interests are invited to address B. J.
Wangh, the Stock Sales Manager of the Great Western Petroleum Company, Tulsa, Oklahoma, and make inquiries or get the published literature of this Company giving its holdings and other facts and figures as to the real condition of the oil interests in the State of Oklahoma.
